

TRUTH

“Consecrate them in the truth”

Who in this life is the person you lie to the most? It is yourself.

This personal fraudulence is used sometimes to avoid a challenge. You tell yourself that you are not capable of a certain decision or task. When in truth you are not prepared to accept the risk of a certain decision or task.

This personal deceit is sometimes used to allow the purchase of something you do not need, in order to pretend that you are a part of an image that does not fit you.

This individual dishonesty can be used to shift the blame, extend the argument, avoid responsibility.

But in truth

What is the point of fraud? Decide. If you choose not to act then the truth has set you free to make other decisions. If you act then the worst you can do is fail. Those who never failed never did anything. But the greater truth is that you are beautiful, and your dignity is there to inspire you to celebrate what you are

But in truth

The deceit so common is that the purchase of an image will make you happy. You do not need to dress up your personal worth. Those who believe in their God given self-worth could wear a bin bag or drive a Reliant Robin, and their style would shine out. The greater truth is that you are worth more than a hundred sparrows, so allow this truth to liberate you from lies of retail therapy. Plus if you're just rubbish with money, be honest and be free.

But in truth

Shifting the blame just moves the problem. It does not deal with it. I tend to blame the government for most of the problems in my life. Some of those problems are beyond my power to solve and deeply honest humility can free me from the pointless use of precious energy. There are consequences I can address, but only if in truth I recognise the reality. What is more I cannot live your life, I can only live my own. That is enough

To your own self be true

The word of God is truth

The truth will set you free

SO

DECIDE

ACCEPT WHAT YOU HAVE

BELIEVE IN WHAT YOU ARE

And thus enjoy, enjoy, enjoy.
